

In 2004, a group requested assistance from Linda Sutton at the KSBDC for market research on the idea. Once the feasibility of the business was

Secret to Success

"A secret to success is to start small. You can always grow. We wanted to make sure there was a market for bottled water before we invested a lot of money."

Wava Kramer, President